St. V. meant a frantic year for many freshmen. They bought elevator passes, got lost between classes, and followed the "upstairs" and "downstairs" signs. But the freshmen survived this traditional initiation. They have proved themselves worthy of becoming part of St. V.

Change is a mark of freshman year. The Class of '70 met many new ideas – after three years, St. V. renewed the team teaching program for first year English. Frosh gladly accepted responsibilities of cooperative and honor study halls and the added privileges of freshman clubs.

gain maturity, follow dreams

It's that "New Time Religion" at St. V. since new religion texts have been introduced. Added to a lively freshman religion course were electives of geography and vocational guidance. Along with their regular world history course, freshmen were introduced to the study of Eastern Culture.

Possibly studied even harder by the Class of '70 was "West Market Street" culture. Valuable lessons in this subject were gained at football and basketball games, informative assemblies, and hops such as the "Alo-hop." Participation in the band and chorus broadened frosh and brightened St. V.

HOBAN WHO??

Heights of school spirit are scaled by Booster officers Larry Marshall, Lois Beeching, Dan Ruth, and Janet Ede.

It took miles of paper, gallons of paint, and hundreds of yards of tape to cover St. V., but Vincenteen Boosters accomplished this mammoth task dozens of times this year.

You name it – they did it – hops, busses, cheer rallies, a freshman handbook and counseling program, and creation of the Spirit Stick – it takes more than paper to cover St. V.

like Halaiko, vice-president.

Working more and more toward achieving its goal of becoming an integral part of St. V. life, this year's student council made great strides both by producing tangible results and by setting precedents for future councils to follow through the adoption of a new constitution.

To increase their treasury the Vincenteen Boosters, using rags, soap, and water, cleaned out the pockets of passing motorists.

Spirit sounded at full blast as the Irish car caravan started rolling. The stands would be packed!

"Put WOW in all of your stories!" is the motto for every reporter from freshman correspondent to senior editor. The Science Fair, girls' retreat, Hoban games, dramatic productions – every part of student life is part of the paper, and the paper has become the showcase of St. V.

"Typing is more than meets the eye," note Secretarial Club officers Sue Ludwig, Anne Durkee, Judy Thomas, and Anne Haren as they practice their trade. Checking spelling, re-reading the copy – all end with the same query, "Does it look all right?"

The steady click of typewriter keys provided background music for future secretaries as they designed ornaments for the Student Council's Christmas tree.

What can a school say? "Thank you?" How can a student show appreciation except by saying, "Delighted you're around?" – your reward, Future Teachers for the things you've done, a thank you that means much more.

"Send for Denny Gearhart!" cry harried teachers when disaster strikes. Into classes he hurries and soon has the situation in hand. The teachers can't thank him enough. "It is the least I could do," he answers with a grin.

'And they lived happily ever after," says Don Russo to his eager audience as Mary Ann Malecky prompts discreetly.

Pleasant FTA!

Irish activities mean time, energy, dedication, and rewarding satisfaction. Members of Chem-Phy often experience the intriguing world of chemicals and principles in experiments.

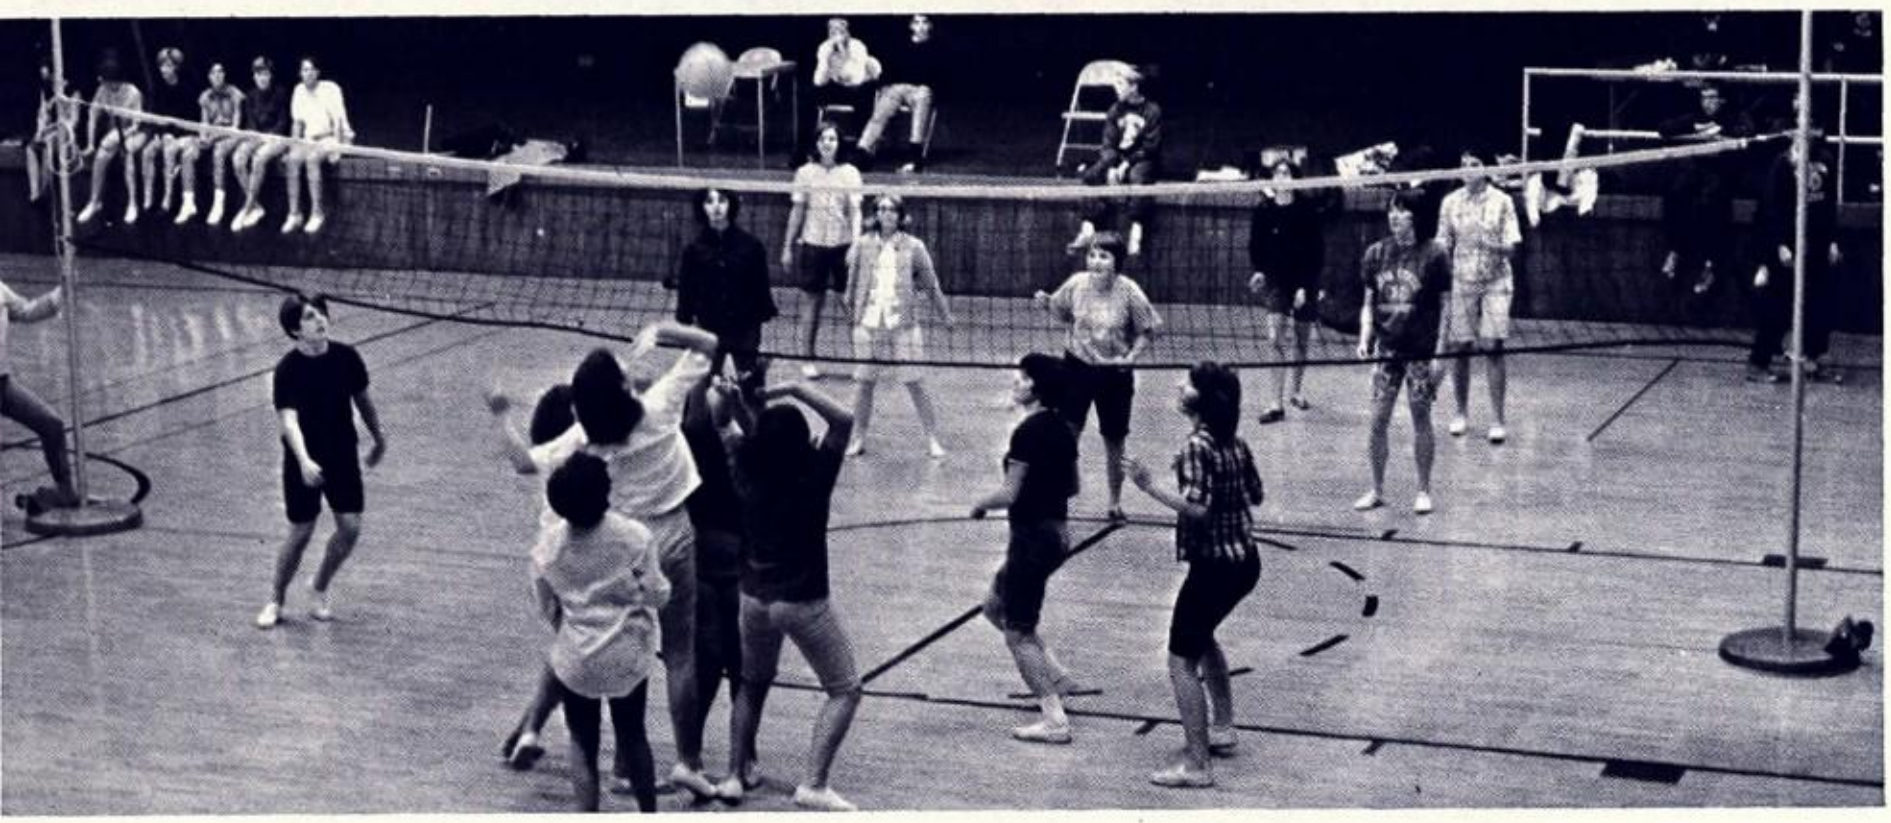
Using the library as headquarters, Catholic Students' Mission Crusade members Larry Marshall, Julie Barlow, Mary Bisesi, Mary Pepperney, Amy Edminister make posters for a victory hop.



"I've got it!" "No, I've got it!" "Well, someone get it, for heaven's sake!" These familiar cries accompany fall as St. V girls try their skills at volleyball. Spring brings calls of "Shoot!" "Foul!" as feminine intramural basketball games invade the fieldhouse.

"doctor" molière

Formerly, the spring musical has been the main emphasis of Irish thespians. But this winter, another type of production came to the auditorium stage – drama in the form of the comedy The Imaginary Invalid by French playwright Molière. For three nights it played with a tremendous response. Directed by World Literature teacher Mrs. Sawan, aided by seniors Gary Johnson and Judy Richardson, the newly reformed Drama Club produced a theatrical in the highly stylized French tradition.

Toinette, disguised as a famour doctor, diagnoses Argan's illness as originating in his lungs. "Amputate an arm," she advises.

"Is he dead? Where's the money?!" Beline (Mary Katherine Walsh) finally reveals her true interests to her husband, Argan, as he tests her fidelity by pretending to be dead.

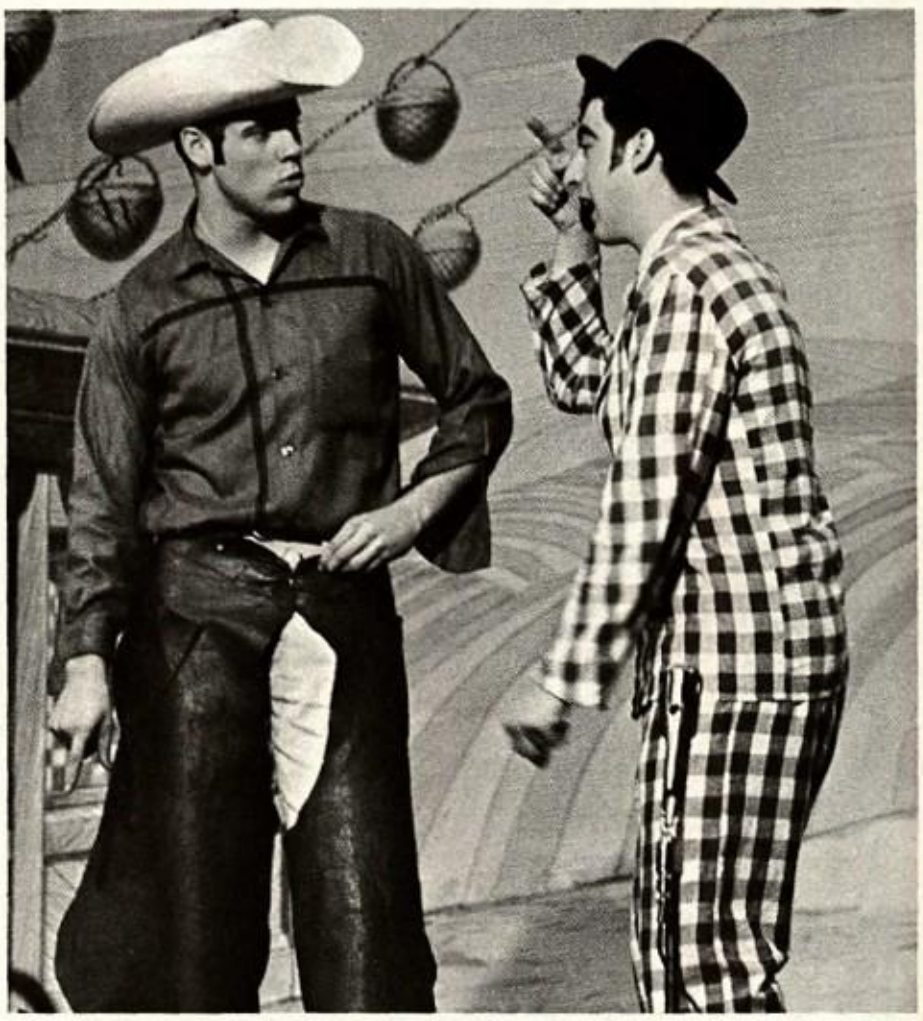
musical means

As Ali Hakim, Ado Annie's beau, Tony Casalinuovo entertains a dubious-looking belle – Pat Angeletti.



What's this? An argument? Or is Ali Hakim just out swindling that shrewd money shark, Will Parker? Who has the $50 now?

Rapt attention is the order of the day as Will serenades his audience.

harmony

With cowboys and pretty girls, Oklahoma! burst into St. V halls. The musical was a first: students produced, directed, and supervised it without faculty assistance. Fr. Moraghan, advisor, commented that all he had to do was "sit and watch".

As producer, senior Judy Richardson co-ordinated music and drama. Senior Mary Jo Spallino, as Laurie, won the best-actress award. Tony Casalinuovo, who portrayed Ali Hakim, was selected best actor.

Steph France and Mary Jo Spallino show typical Irish talent in this scene from Oklahoma! Students combined efforts for a stage success.

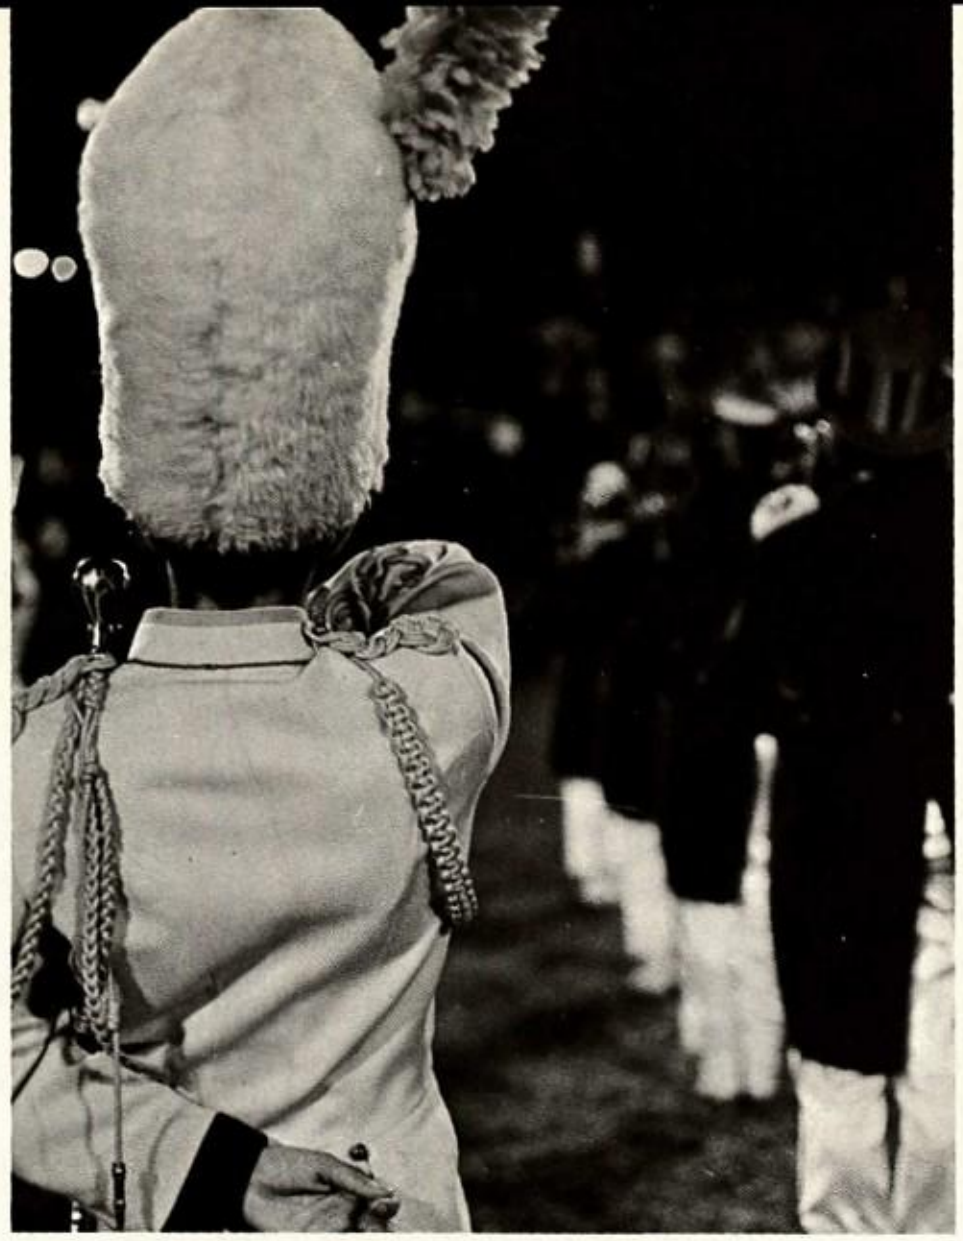
A casket's ready for the Hoban Knights and freshie boys are eager pallbearers at an Irish rally.

Seniors explode with enthusiasm and cheer the matmen to victory over North's Vikings.

contentment is being with friends

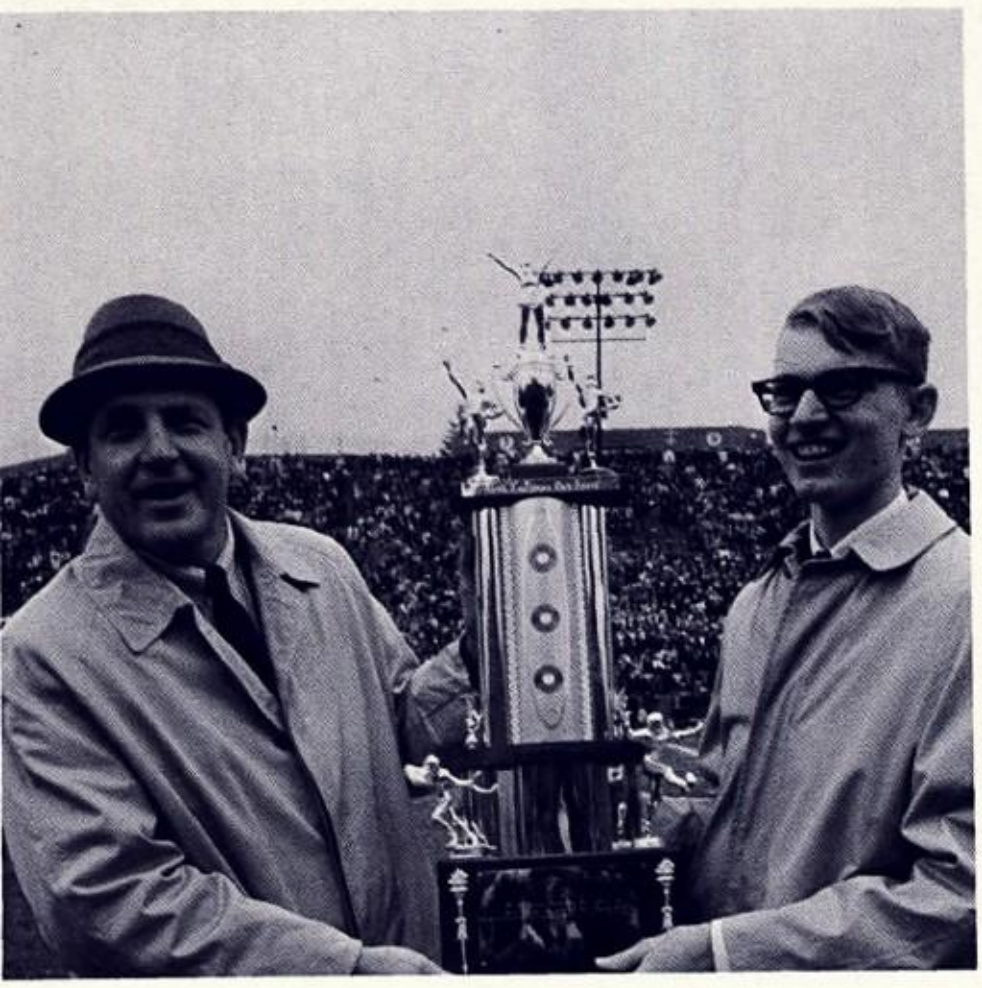
Freshmen make good "bums" at the Band's annual Hobo Hop, the only dance when it's "the thing" to be sloppy.

Bringing refreshments to thirsty hoboes like Ted Ransweiler are Band members C. Gannon, M. Staudt, and M. Nolan.



"And it came to pass" that Hoban's Knights in a fight to the finish, defeated the Mighty Irish. Representing the spirit of rivalry between the two schools are Nick Kryah masquerading as a Knight and Chic Aquino with mascot.

Irish spirit hangs heavily over Vincenteen Booster members. They are busy discussing a new problem – what to do when the wall's full!



The Rubber Bowl set the stage as Larry Marshall claimed the coveted sportsmanship trophy from Touchdown Club's Mr. Schoonover.

how spirit is spelled: i-r-i-s-h

Spirit is born
As a quiet whisper
But it is magnified
To echo in corridors
Of gray and graying lockers.

It wanders –
But soon is to settle.
Spirit grows with the heart –
In the strength of knowledge
And the devotion of loyalty.

Distance will not Weaken our spirit –
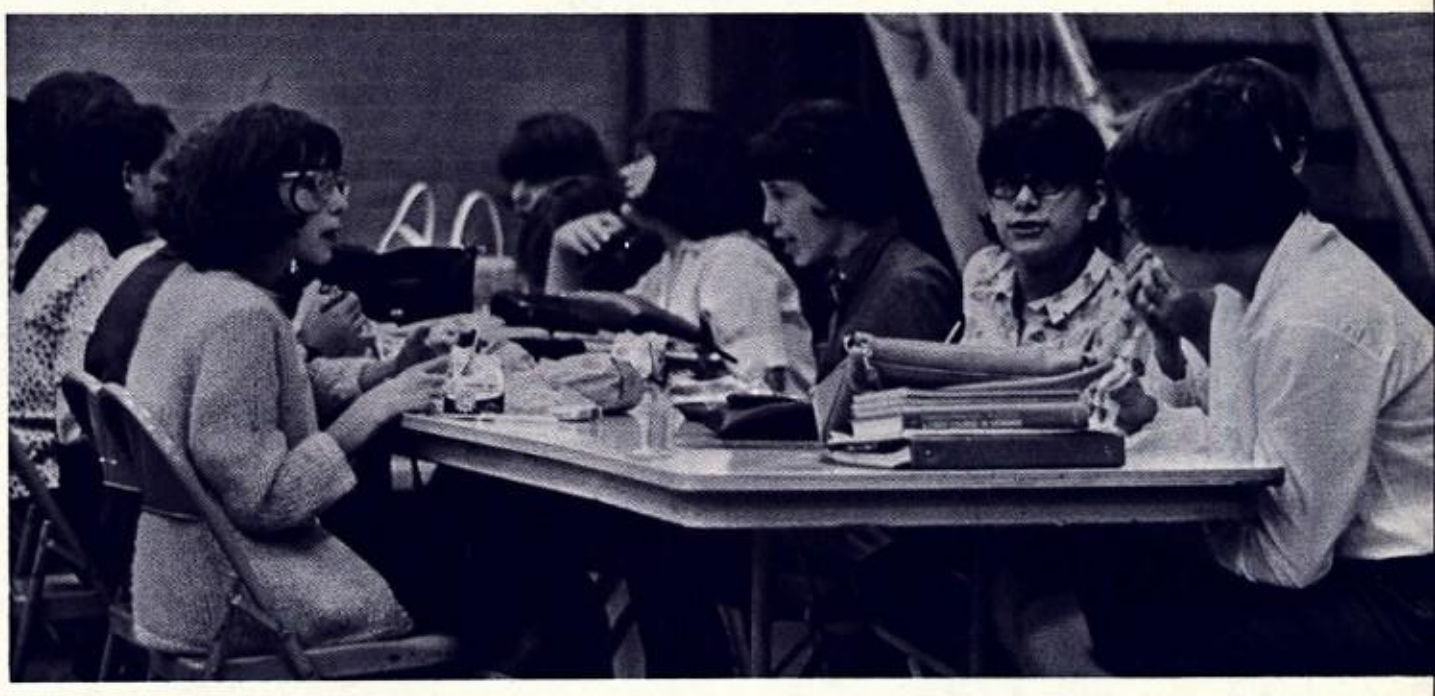
Time will stand
In testimony

As the spirit of our youth
Becomes the wisdom
Of our maturity.

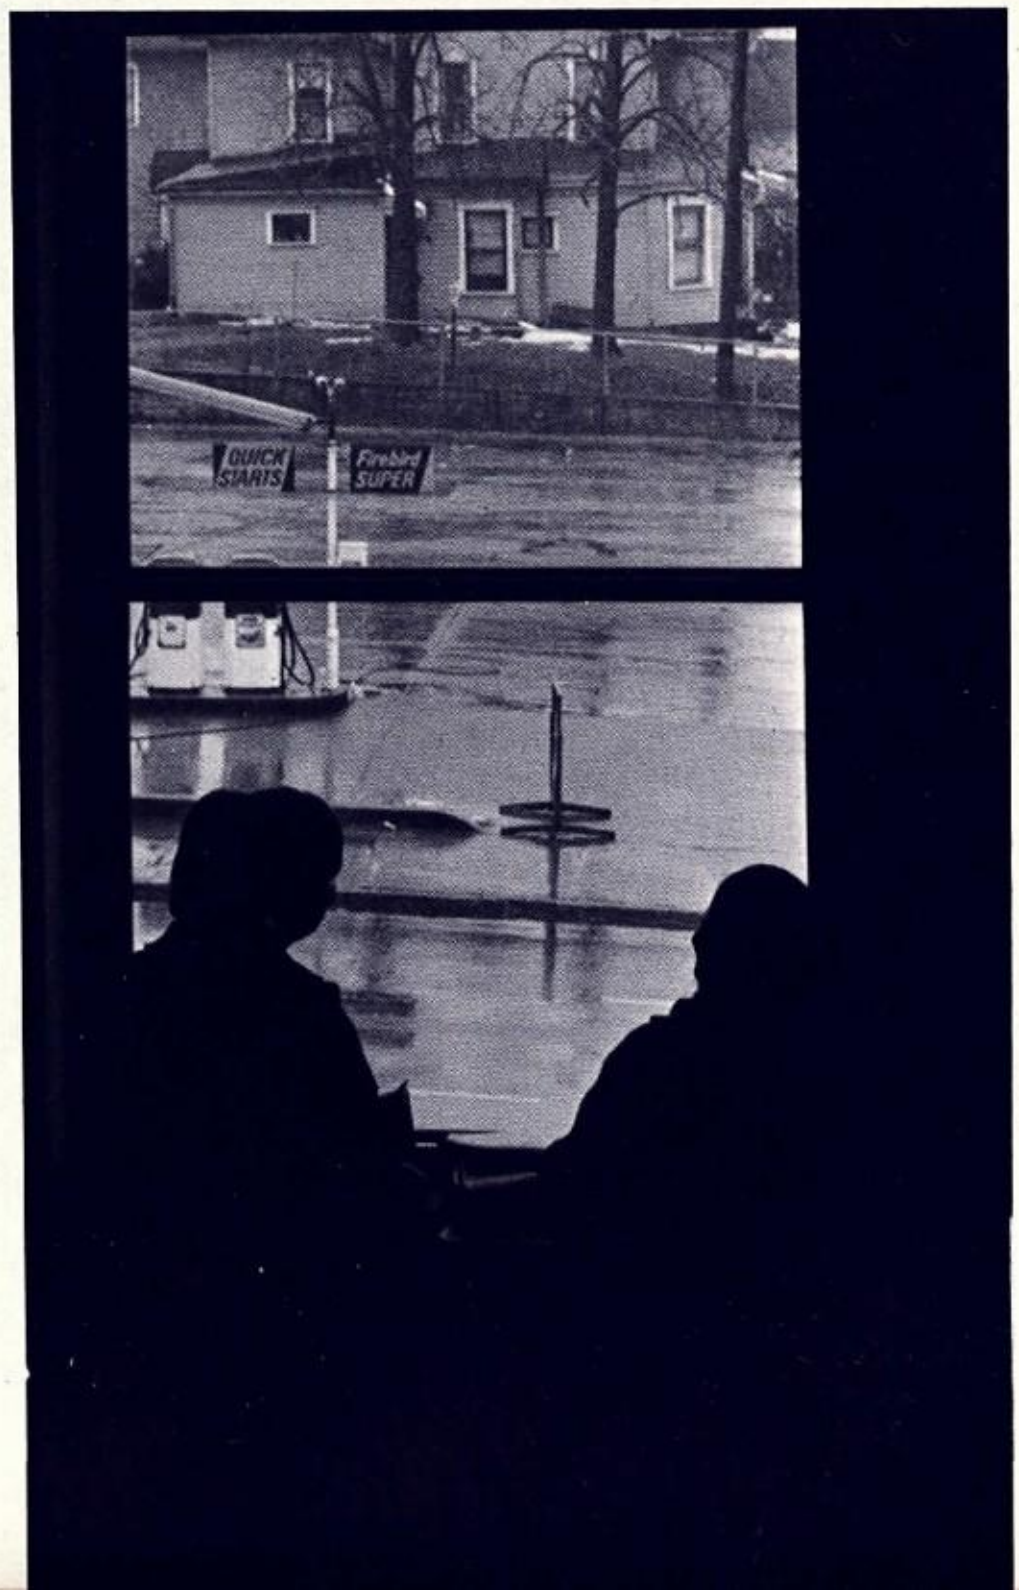
It's hard to believe that anyone could be thirsty after drinking in knowledge all day, but we're not sure that Lenny Galizio, Terry Kelly, Jerry Skinner, and Tom Creelan would agree with us on that point.

school means more than books



What's the best part of the day? Why, lunch, of course! Freshmen find that it's the only period that restores energy rather than removing it.

There must be a time to dream, for dreams precede action. Our windows look out on footsteps – footsteps to follow, footsteps to make.



Who is this . . .
who has come to learn? –
To understand others as well as himself,
To trace an obscure pattern
that he will follow,
To be part of a whole
and still an individual,
To learn of life
by living.

the unbeatable foe"

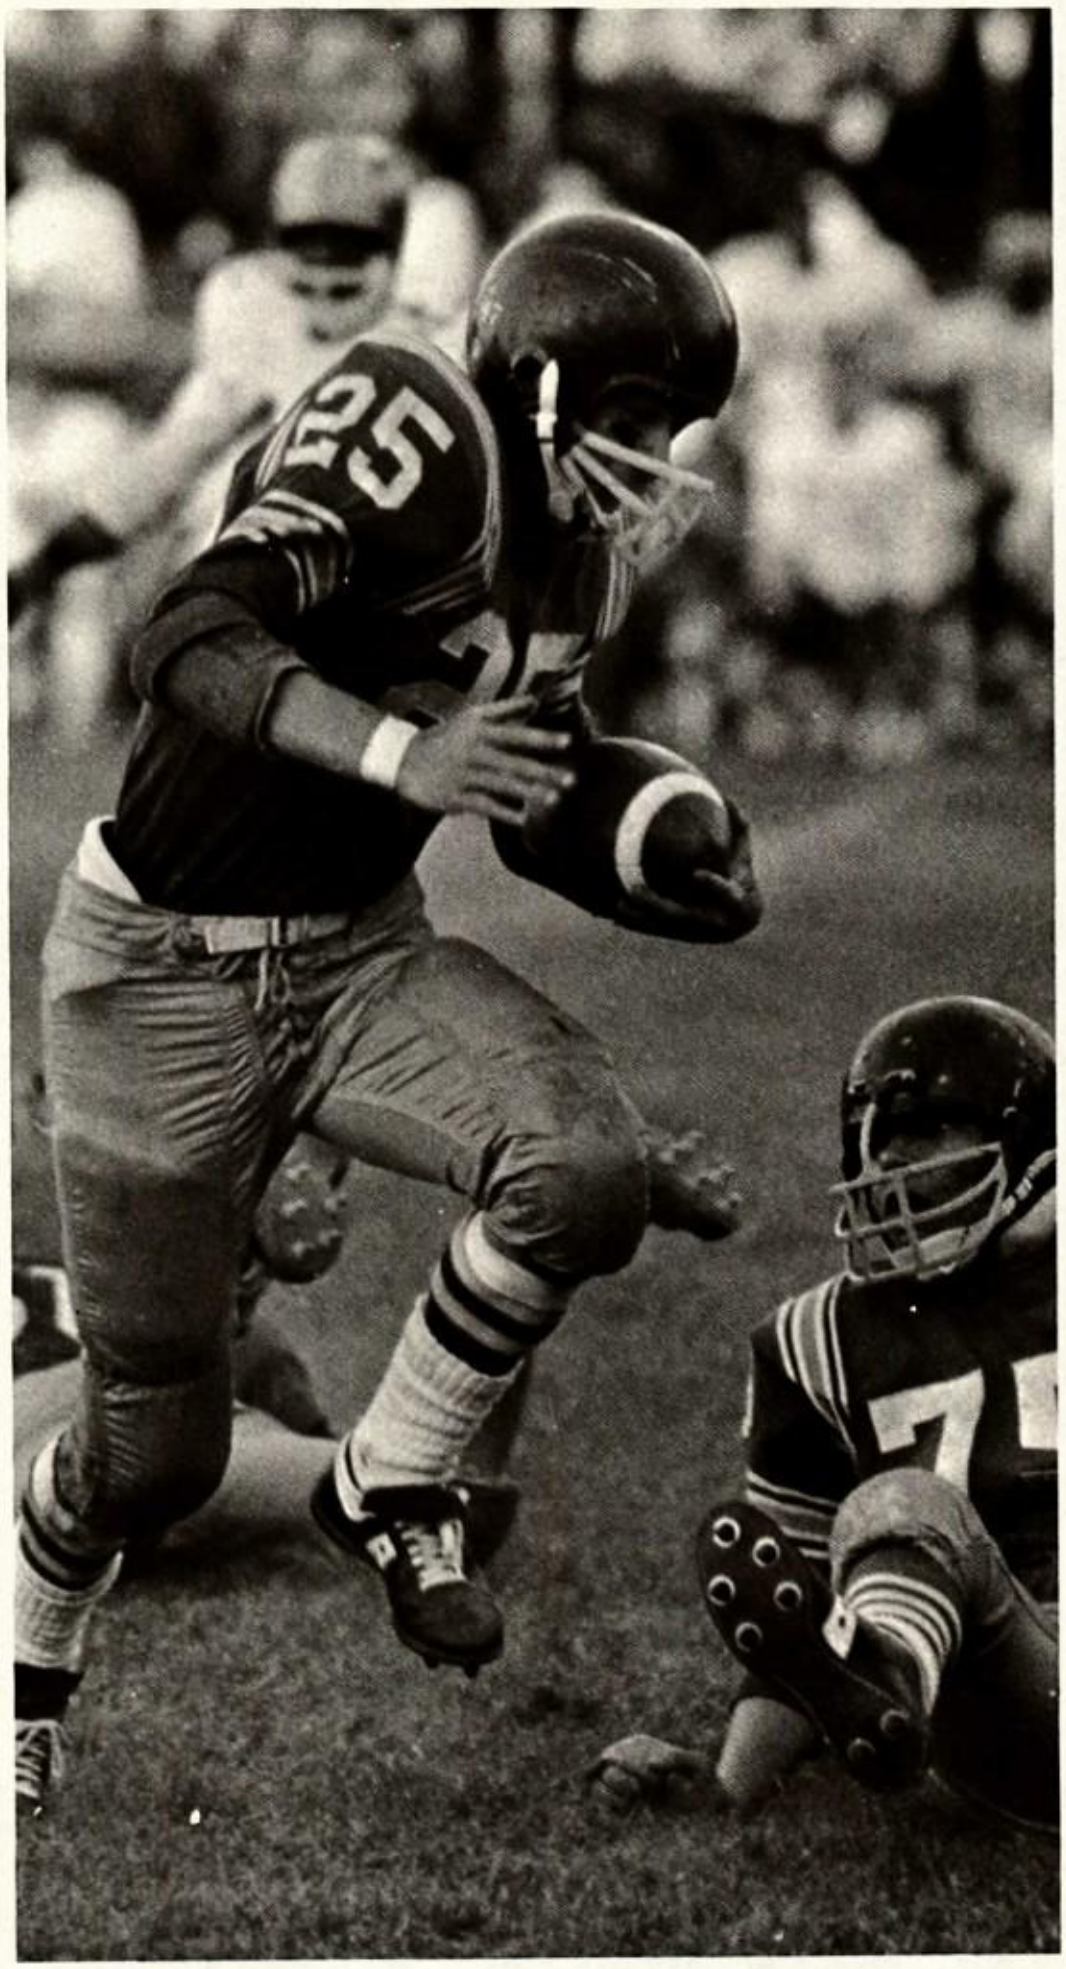
Through hard work and determination, football has produced many fine athletes. But football produces more than skill; it produces men. Life in the world of the pigskin teaches boys to accept victory modestly and defeat graciously. Hours of sweat and toil build the players' appreciation of work and develops a sense of personal pride.

for a gain of a couple yards is Dave Tetzel, No. 19.

Demonstrating the dedication and the determination necessary for a good band director, Mr. Richard Cryder leads the band in a song.



Pat Dunlavy gallops through a gaping hole in the East line for a substantial gain. Such gains as this provided sparkle for the Irish running attack that capitalized on breaks.

Riddled by a pre-season injury to junior quarterback Willie Zwisler, the Irish opened the '66 season with a hard fought loss to Akron East – 8-0. Playing a rough schedule, the green and white proceeded to roll up impressive victories over Chanel, Barberton, Central, and Canton Central Catholic. Combined losses to Alliance and Hoban were only 3 touchdowns from victory. Second-ranked Niles beat the Irish 20-0. The highlight of the season was a 6-6 tie with powerful Cleveland St. Joseph, ranked tenth in the state.

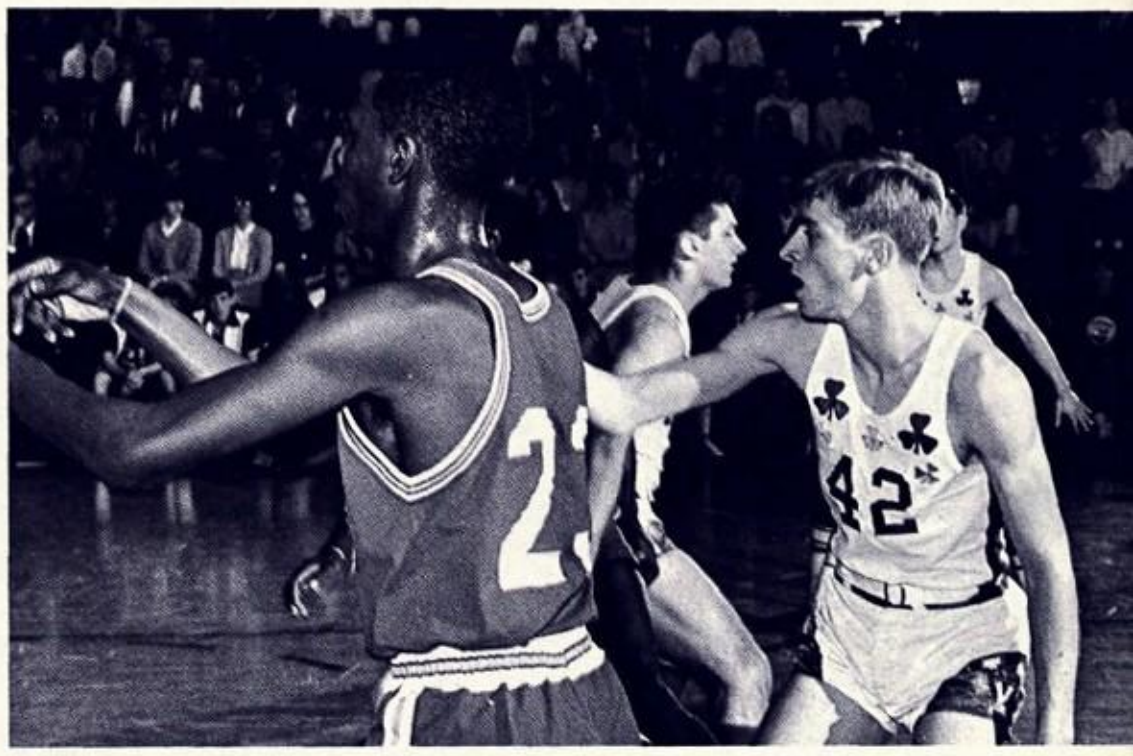
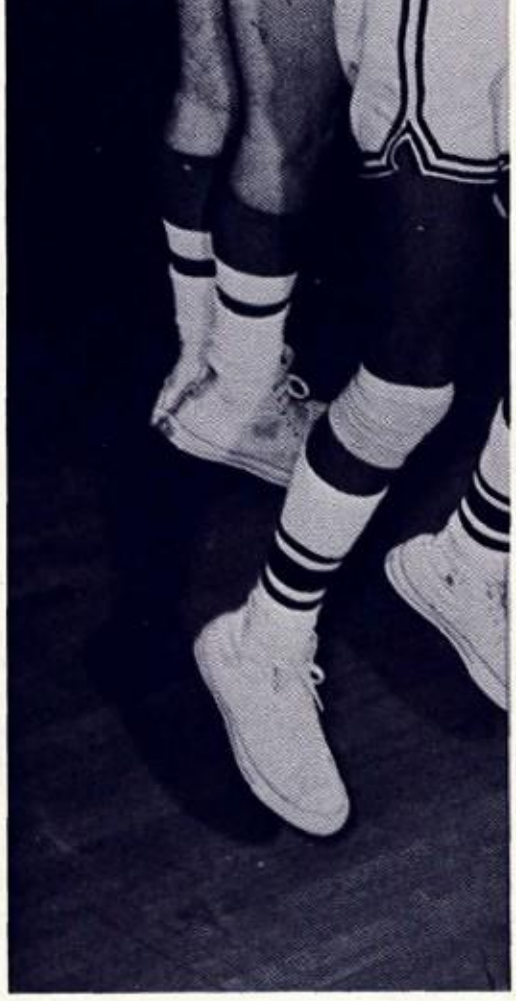
strong effort marks season

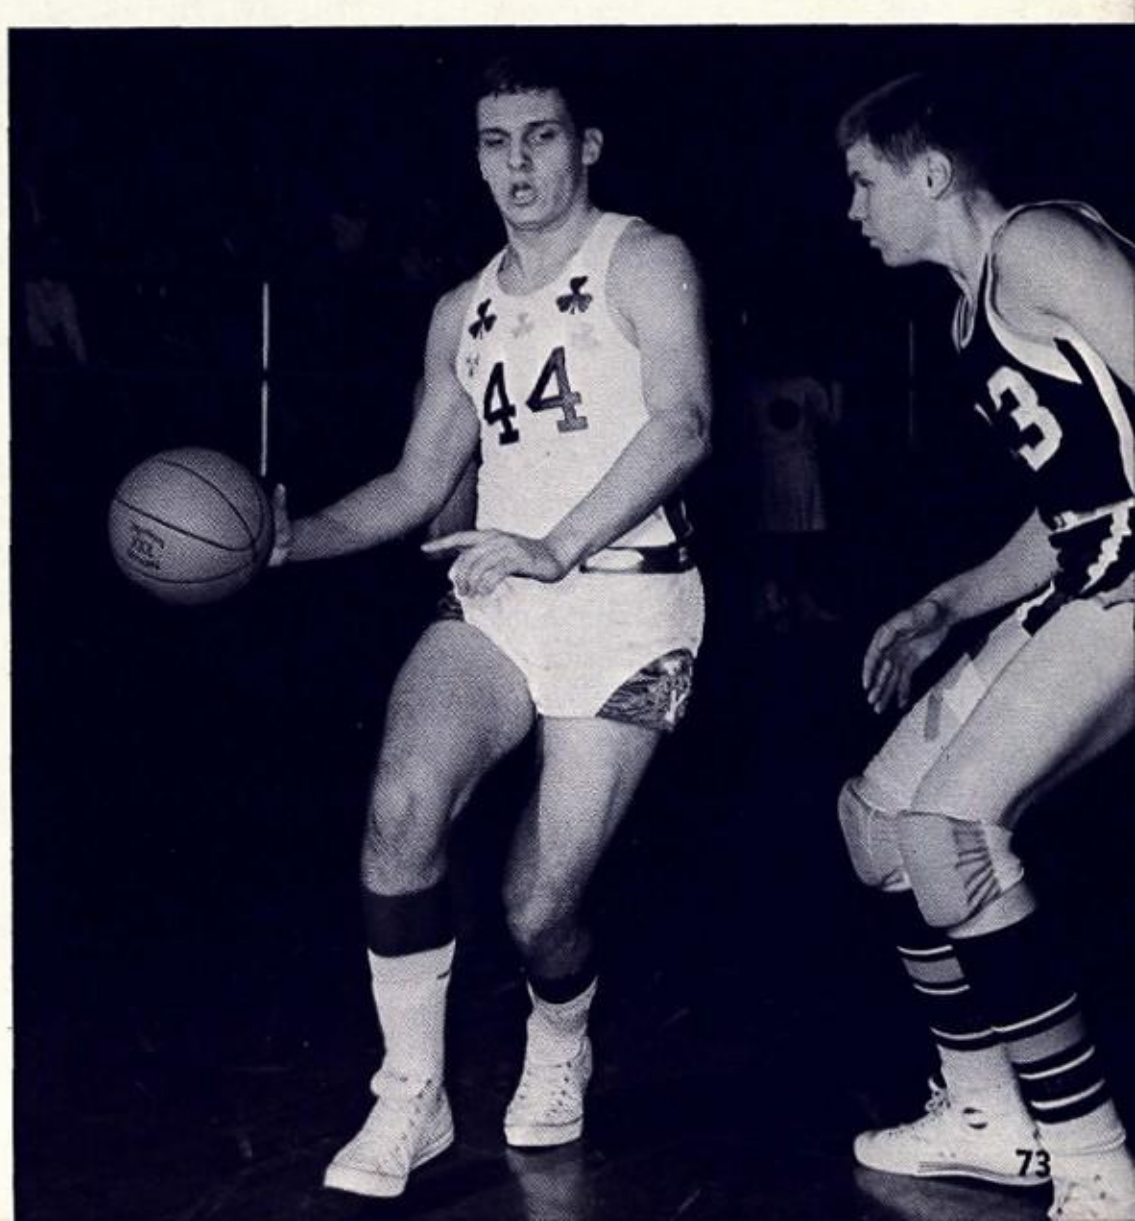


"Get the ball," shouts the crowd while junior Tom Barr and senior Ron Piekarski try to stop Barberton from scoring.

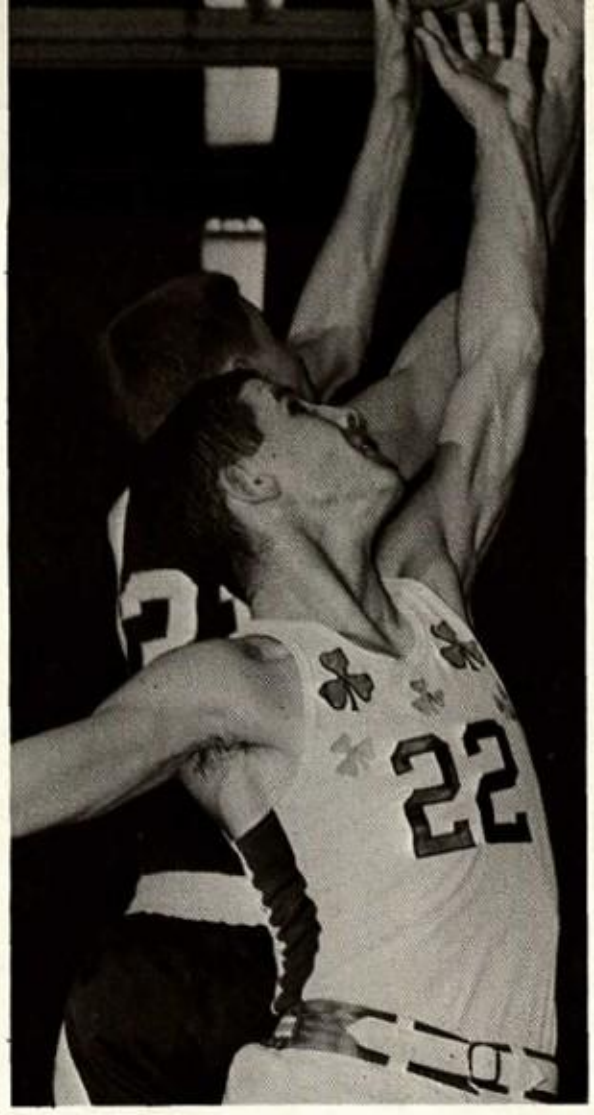
Ron Piekarski dribbles in for a much needed basket enroute to overcoming a 17 point deficit and helping the Irish win.



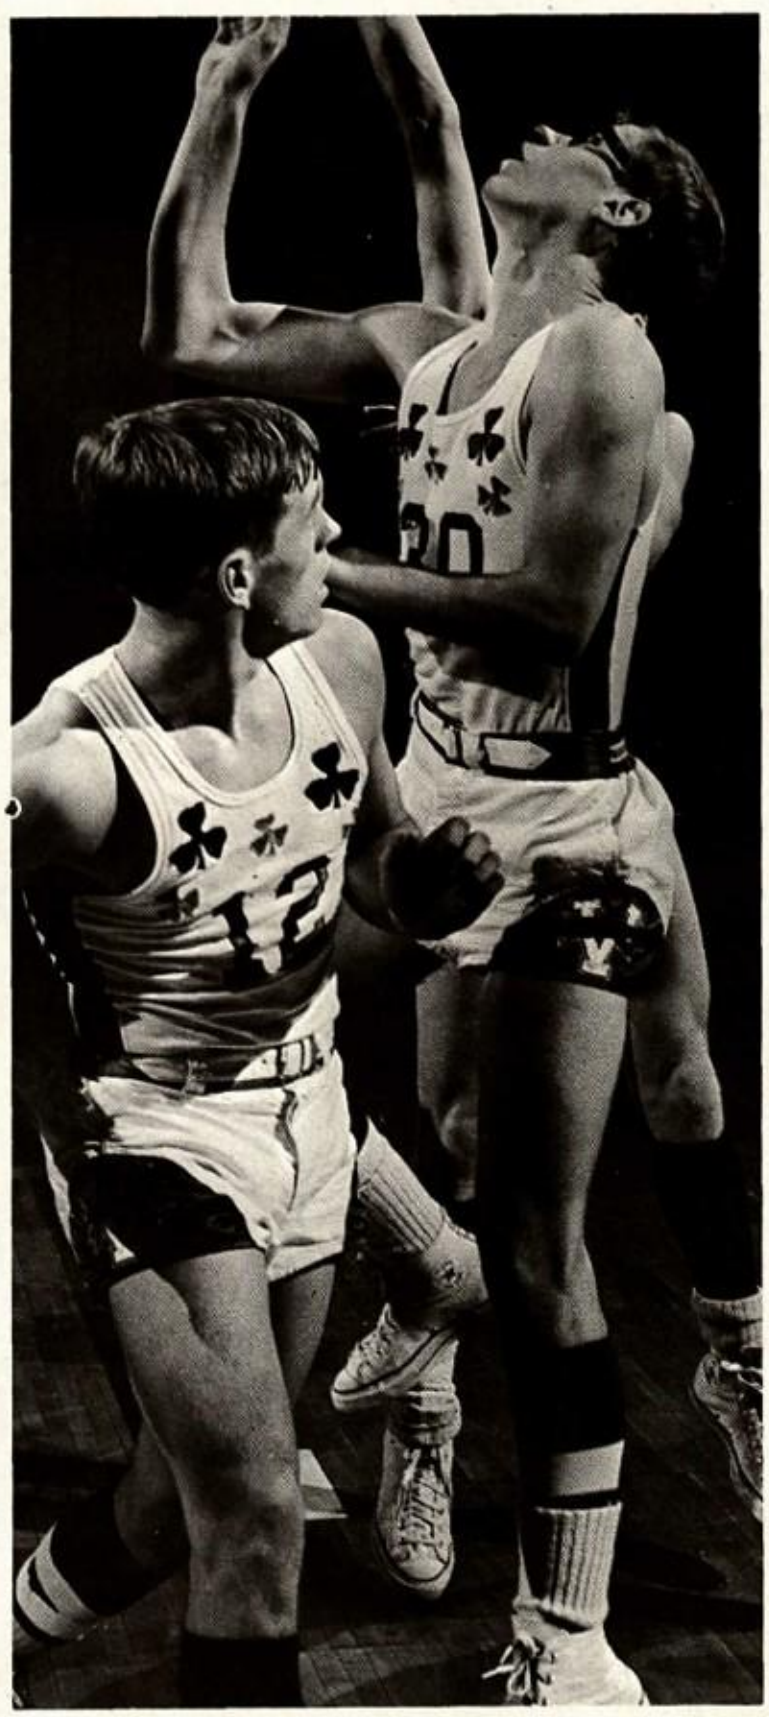
Tom Memmer goes neck and neck in the battle for a rebound during action against Buchtel. Tom's 26 .point performance sparked the Irish victory.



roundballers split



The iron strong muscles of Tom "Monk" Memmer, the defensive hawk, propels him skyward to thwart a high flying Falcon.



Senior Fred Dillick goes for a rebound while junior Willie Zwisler looks on. The Irish teamwork led to an exciting victory over arch-rival Hoban High.

The St. Vincent courtmen erratically scrambled their way to a 7-12 record. The determined Irish balanced their height disadvantage with teamwork, hustle, and shooting. All-city honors were awarded to seniors Ron Piekarski and Tom Memmer, and to junior Tim Durbin.

Junior Willie Zwisler puts the moves on a Barberton player as he gets ready to shoot.

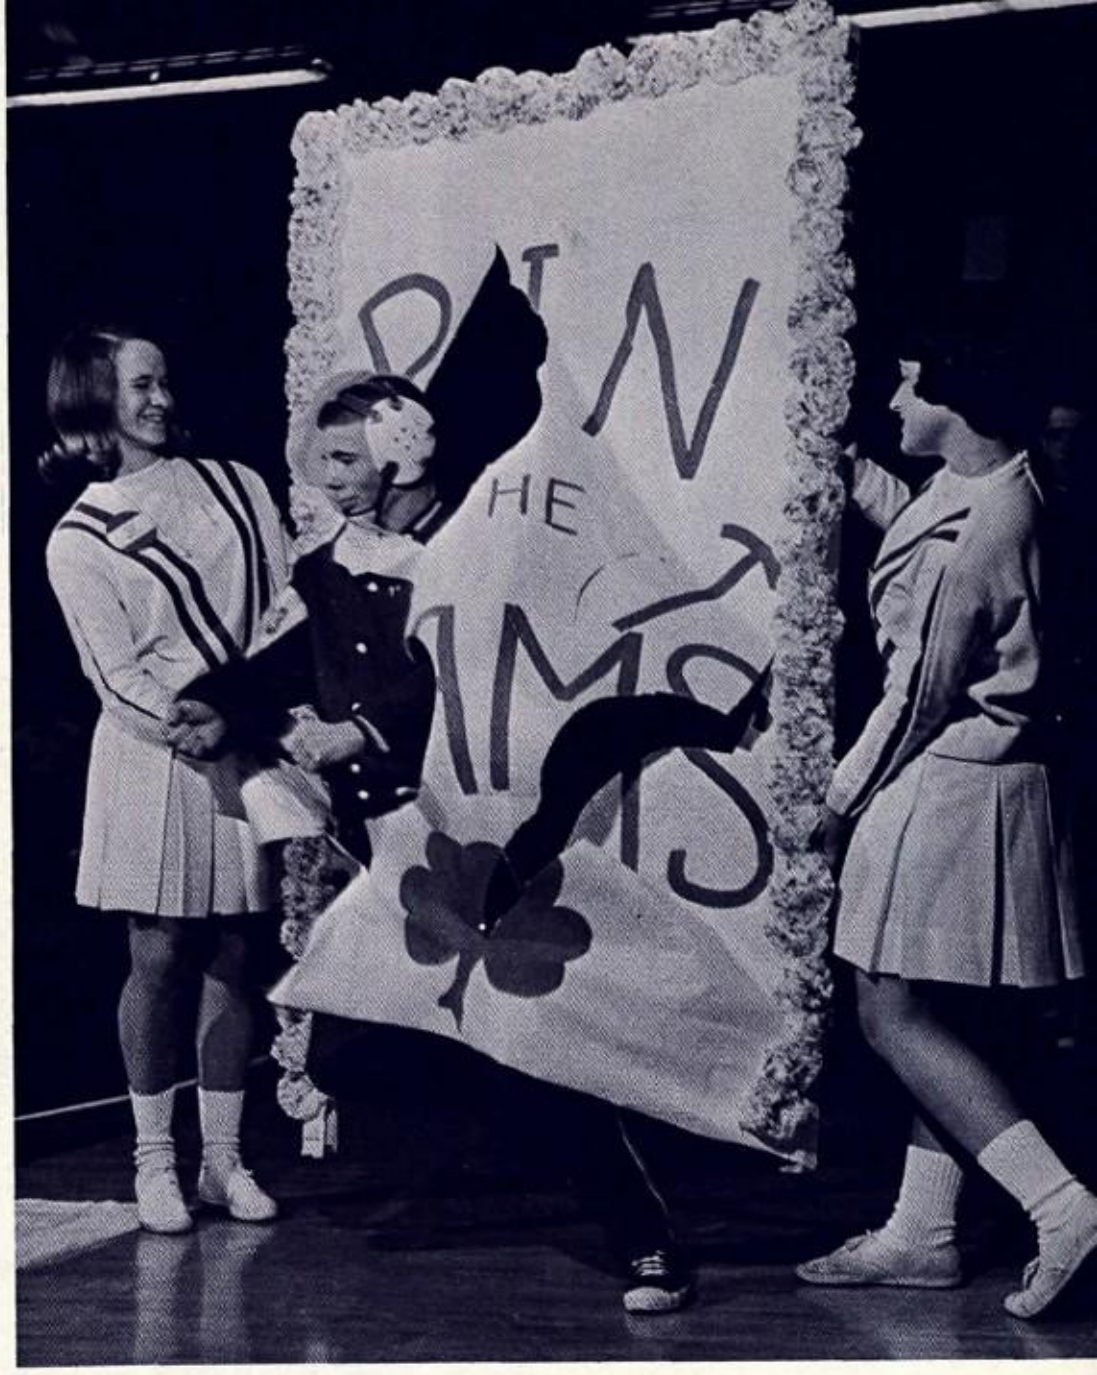
Getting ready for their slaughter of the Ellet Orangemen, the Irish grapplers do their pre-match pushups. Co-captain Mark Fiedler leads warm-ups in the center.

enior captain George Svetlik prepared to roll his North High opponent over or a pin. The matmen muscled to a 26-11 victory.

win city series



"Zip" Clark, junior, leads the Irish through the victory hoop, held by Judi Graf and Mary Russo. "Zip" led the Irish on to defeat Garfield, finishing his third year 11-0.

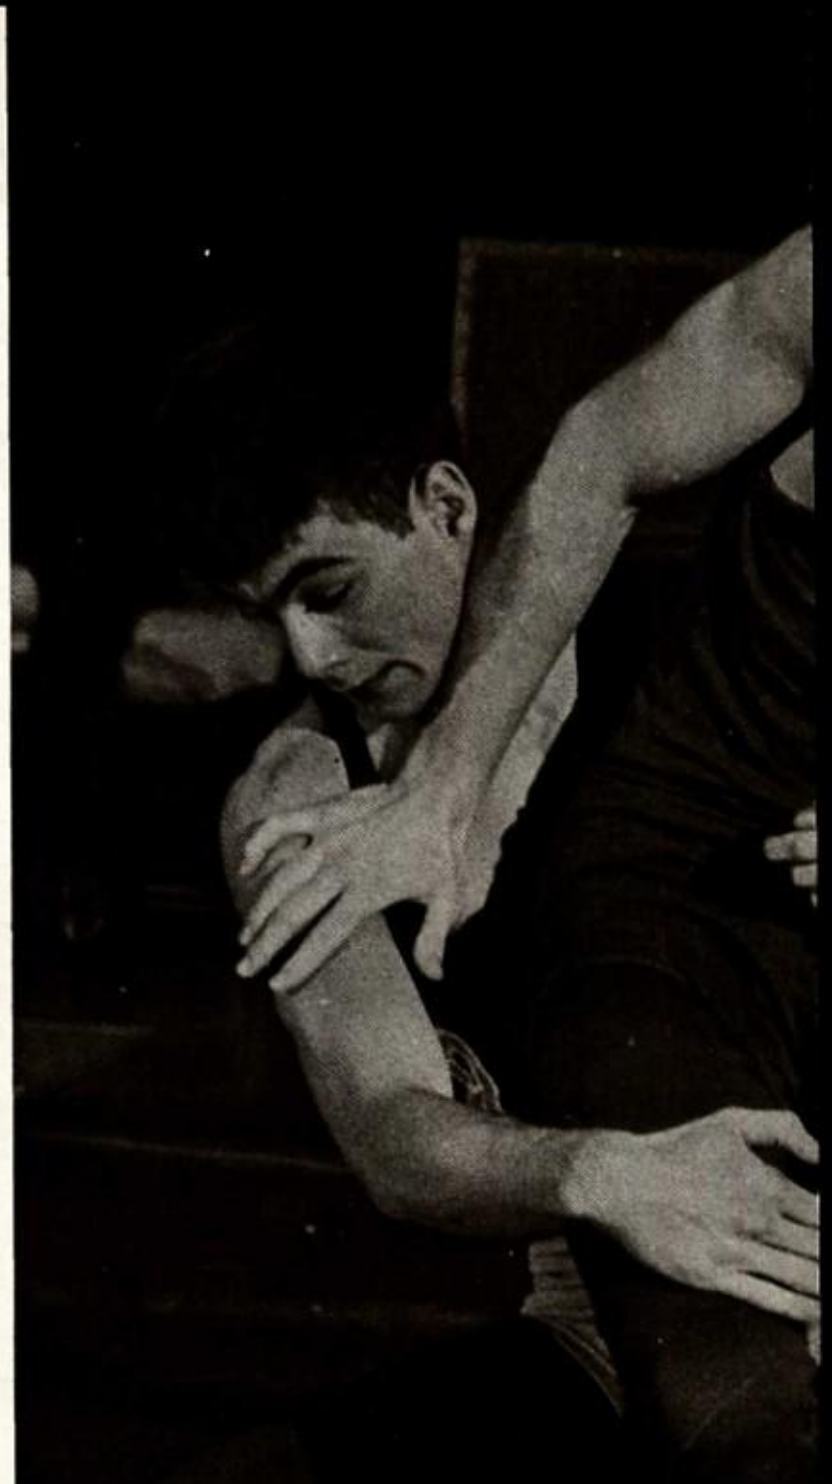
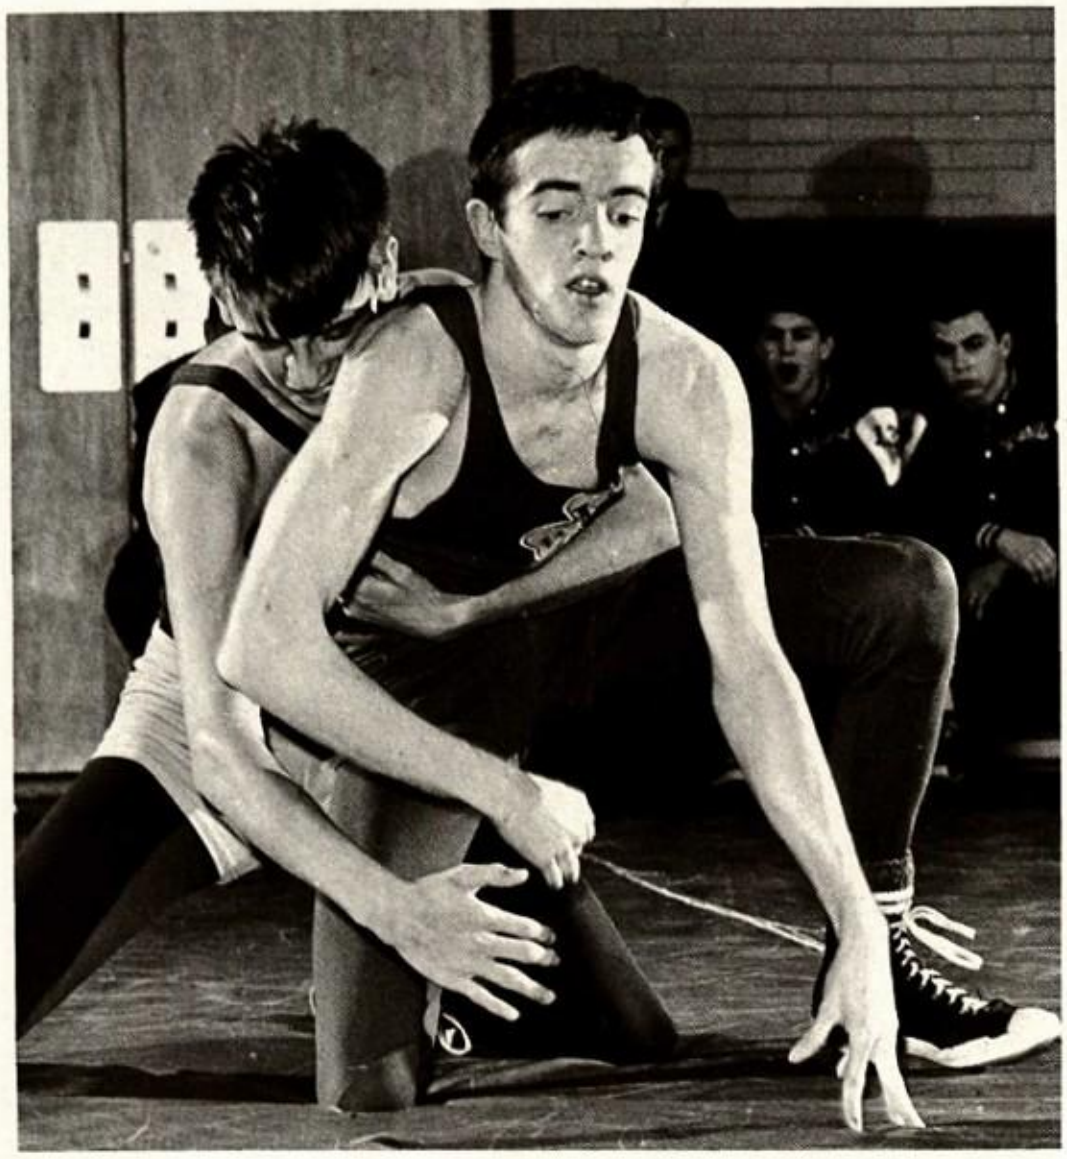
Joe Trecaso, the Irish 120, picks up his Ellet foe at the beginning of the match, trying to gain control and earn two points for a take-down.



Senior Bob "Rabbit" McDonald jumps at the sound of the referee's whistle, while his teammates, waiting for their own matches, cheer him on.



Sophomore Tom Matuschak attempts to earn a point for an escape by standing up against Garfield.

irish finish

The second year for mat coach Bruce Brubach, and the fifth year for the Irish wrestling team saw the first City Series Championship for St. Vincent. The grapplers were 8-0 in the city; 10-0 over-all. The only loss suffered by the matmen was a 23-21 upset early in the season by Manchester. The matmen won the City Series crown at the last match of the season, when a "turn-away crowd" saw the Irish defeat previously unbeaten Hoban, 21-14.

'om's first year on the mat saw him represent the Irish team
: the 145-pound weight class.

10-1 season

ed by four senior captains, John McDerıott, Mark Fiedler, Dan Sear and George vetlik, with junior standout Kevin "Zip" Clark, the Irish captured second in the Catholic Invitational Tournament. "Zip" vas 103 "grand champion" at the C.I.T.; ndefeated in dual matches; and ranked ifth in the state at the Columbus Tournaıents. John McDermott at 154 was also ndefeated in dual matches; while Mark iedler, Dan Sear, and George Svetlik were 0-1.

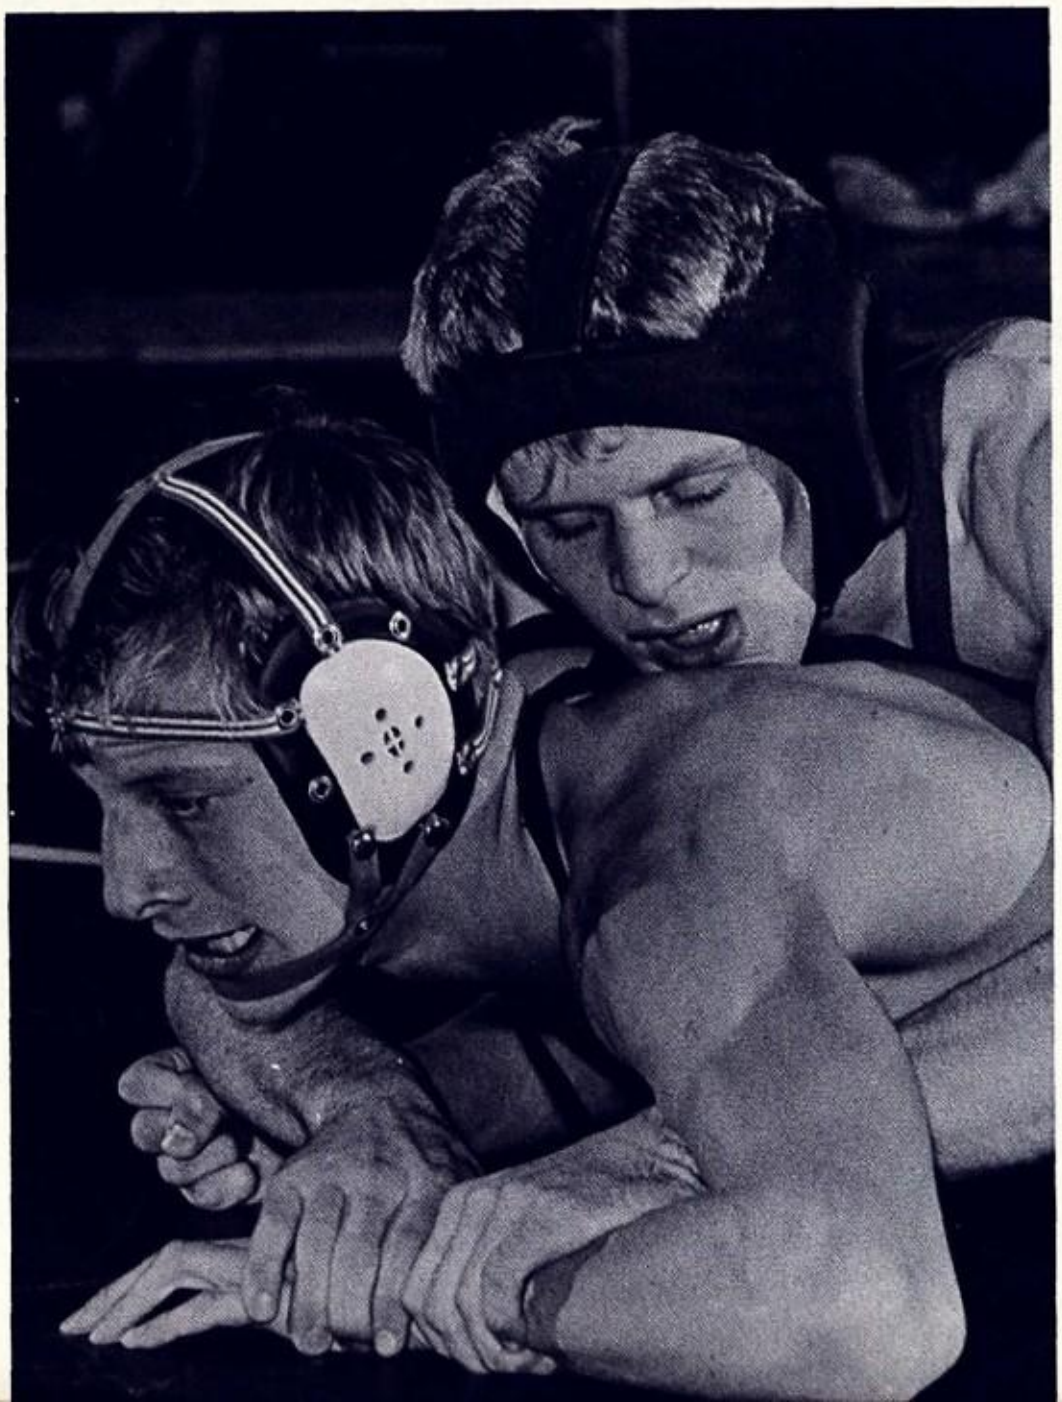
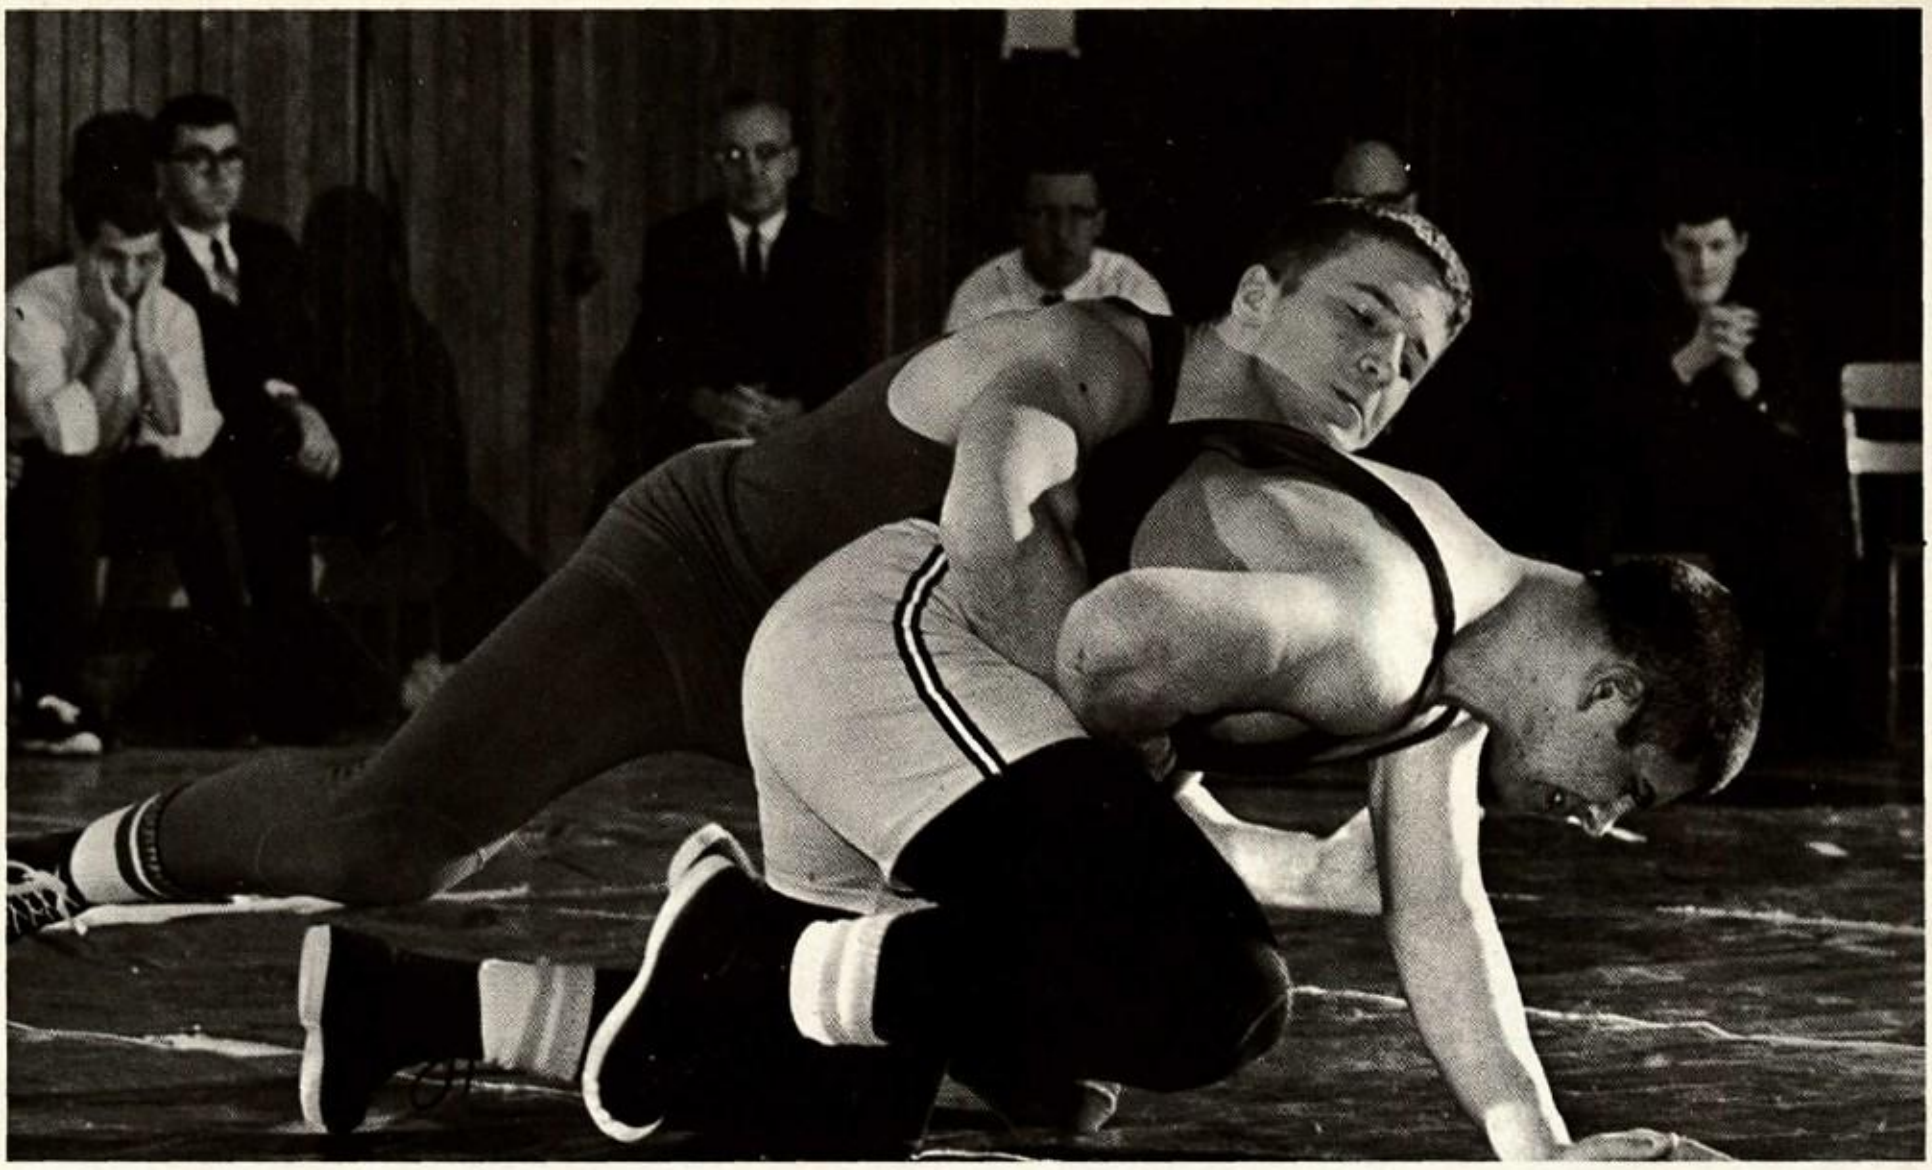
Junior Pete Shedlosky, heavyweight, always wrestles last. Pete easily handles his opponent from North, to finish another Irish victory.

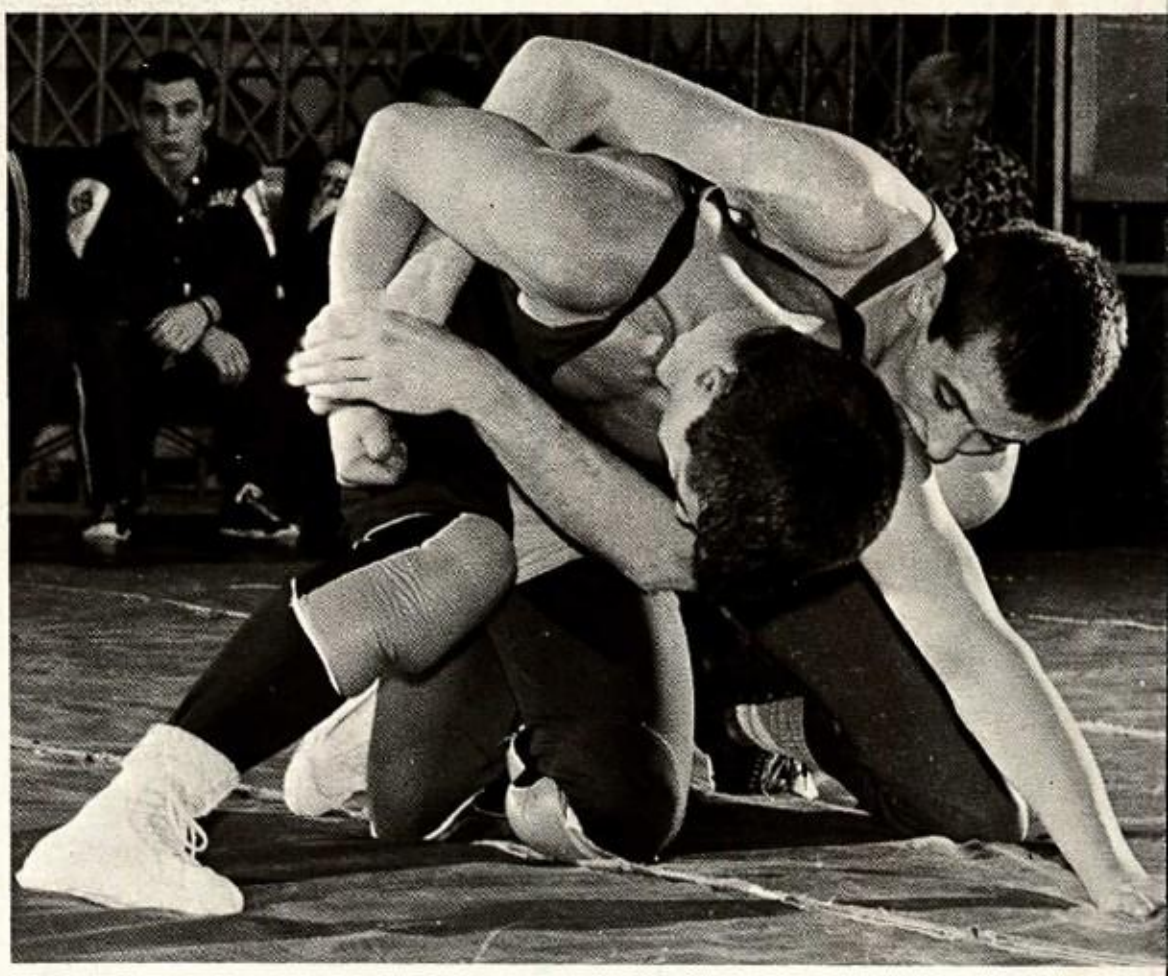
Senior Mark Fiedler saves his energy for the third period of his match against Ellet. Inexperienced, Ellet easily fell to the Irish, 32-8.





Larry Graf begins the counter to stop an attempted reversal by his North opponent. An improving sophomore, Larry controlled the 175-pound adversary several times, earning a victory for himself, and contributing to the Irish win.

wrestlers + spirit = champs



Senior John McDermott draws blood for the Irish with riding time against Firestone. John, at 145, finished his final year on the mat undefeated.

r Dan Sear breaks down his worthy opponent in a crucial match, destroying the hopes of a Viking upset. His win spirited the Irish to eliminate another foe, . In a tough 138 weight-class, Dan finished his final year with an admirable 10-1 record.

All foes try to hide from Mike Mesek when he releases his fury on the wrestling mat.

Joe Trecaso, junior, uses a deep double-waist ride to keep his Ellet opponent flat. This was Joe's third year on the mat for St. Vincent.

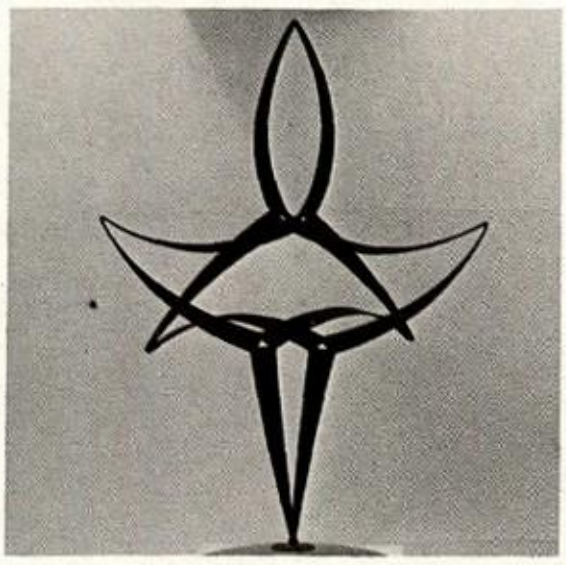
irish



the impossible dream

from "Man of La Mancha" Joe Darion, lyrics;
Mitch Leigh, music.

To dream the impossible dream,
to fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear the unbearable wrong,
to run where the brave dare not go.

To right the unrightable wrong,
to love pure and chaste from afar,
To try when your arms are too weary,
to reach the unreachable star!

This is my quest, to follow that star,
No matter how hopeless, no matter how far;
To fight for the right without question or pause,
To be willing to march into hell for a heavenly cause!

And I know, if I'll only be true
To this glorious quest,
that my heart will lie peaceful and calm,
When I'm laid to my rest,
And the world will be better for this;
That one man, scorned and covered with scars,
Still strove with his last ounce of courage,
To reach the unreachable stars.
